VISTA DEL MAR: WHO WE ARE

MISSION

Vista Del Mar provides a trauma-responsive continuum of services to empower children, youth, and families in Southern California to lead fulfilling lives. VDM envisions a community where all children and families are equipped and prepared to live productive, fulfilling lives.

VALUES

Vista Del Mar is guided by core values of empowerment, equity, and excellence.

1. We consider the youth and families we work with to be equal partners in pursuing improved well-being and individual, family, and community equity and empowerment.
2. We provide services and facilitate opportunities without regard to race, ethnicity, national origin, gender expression, sexual orientation, religious preferences, or physical ability. Vista Del Mar actively advances equal opportunity, equitable access, mutual respect, collaboration, and teamwork.
3. We are committed to excellence in all aspects of our work. Our goal is to deliver innovative, best-in-class services and build a sustainable organization that consistently improves wellbeing among our clients, their families, and their respective communities.
4. Vista Del Mar takes great pride in providing exceptional programs and services for children and families throughout LA County. We serve the most vulnerable in Los Angeles, many of whom have faced multi-generational inequities.
